READING OLYMPICS

Enter your Camp Outpost Classroom in the Reading Olympics Online.

Prepare book reports on books read since Fall 2001, or on e-books read on Camp Internet, and submit your class entries in the Field Reports / Campwide report room February 5-28th.

The top 36 classrooms that submit the most reports in the Reading Olympics will receive a 'Silver Medal' to reward their great work!

Book reports can be of any length over 50 words. Scanned images of the book cover, from the online version, or student illustrations can be added by the teacher when the report is posted. Please prepare the written reports first as a word document and then copy / paste into the Field Report / Campwide Winter Reading Olympic room.

All classes are invited and will receive a certificate of participation.

Coyote poster by John Nieto is one of many Olympic art and poetry projects taking place to celebrate America's strengths. See the Olympic Arts Festival online.
